The image shows a screenshot of a website menu. On the left, there is a vertical list of six items, each preceded by a yellow biohazard icon. The items are: "What are GMOs?", "Legislation", "Hazards", "Risk assessment", "Safe use, storage and disposal", and "Monitoring and reporting". To the right of this list is a dark blue button with the text "Main Menu" in yellow. Further to the right is a graphic featuring a DNA double helix, a bar chart, and a red globe with a biohazard symbol.
