How we get our drinking water

1. Water is taken from a river, spring or groundwater source.
2. The water is pumped through pipes to a treatment plant.
3. The water is treated to make it safe to drink.
4. The treated water is piped to homes and other premises.