SUMMARY OF WWDA LICENSING PROCESS

PRE-APPLICATION STAGE STAGE 1 Irish Water make a pre-application enquiry Irish Water publishes Irish Water notifies Irish Water erects notice of intention to relevant water services site notice apply for a licence authority APPLICATION FOR LICENCE STAGE 2 Irish Water applies Irish Water may apply for waiver of fee for licence EPA notifies statutory consultees EPA receives submissions from any individual / organisation EPA assesses application EPA requests additional information Irish Water submits additional information EPA acknowledges Months Statutory Deadline (may be extended) application as complete EPA waits one month to EPA receives submissions from any allow further submissions individual / organisation STAGE 3 DECISION Consideration by EPA Board EPA issues a final decision* EPA publishes FD and notifies all parties REVIEW OF LICENCE The Agency shall review a licence The Agency may review a licence a. within 6 years of the licence or a. if new grounds arise (see Regulation 14(6)) revised licence being granted b at any time with the consent of the licensee b. upon application by the licensee c at any time once the licence has been granted for 3 years