Climate Change’s Four Irelands

Alarmed 36%
- Male 43%  Female 57%
- Urban 69%  Rural 31%*
- Believe climate change is happening 99%
- Believe govt should make climate action a high/very high priority 94%

Concerned 48%
- Male 50%  Female 50%
- Urban 65%  Rural 35%
- Believe climate change is happening 98%
- In favour of Government support to install more efficient heating systems 98%

Cautious 12%
- Male 58%  Female 42%
- Urban 62%  Rural 38%
- Believe climate change is happening 90%

Doubtful 3%
- Male 74%  Female 26%
- Urban 64%  Rural 36%
- Climate change is very/extremely important to them personally 11%
- Government should provide support for people to buy electric vehicles 85%
- In favour of Government support to install more efficient heating systems 93%

National urban/rural population proportions are 69/31% based on CSO 2019 published data.